Visitor information for the new Hill Farms State Office Building

If you need to visit the new Hill Farms State Office Building, please note the following from our Visitor Policy:

- Visitors will need to check in at the security desk.
- The security staff will assist visitors by contacting the respective agency and designated contact. Visitors will receive a temporary access card and either be escorted by an employee of the agency or use the access card for the turnstile and elevator to get to the floor they are visiting.
- Visitor Wi-Fi- The building has wireless access points spread throughout. The Guest network is at this point 'open', no credentials are required to access the internet.

- Visitor Parking - there are 107 visitor stalls available in the parking ramp, which is located on Sheboygan Avenue to the west of the original Hill Farms State Office Building. There is signage to direct visitors to the visitor parking in the garage.
- Visitor Parking is available in the Hill Farms Parking Ramp on the first floor and lower level from 6am - 6pm Monday - Friday excluding holidays.
- The first 30 minutes for a visitor to park at the building is free.
- Agencies may provide validations for visitors.
- Handicap visitor parking will be available at the front of the Hill Farms Office Building at no charge.
