Construction Update:

Traffic has been allowed back on Main Street between the Post Office and Gale Avenue. Parking on the street is also permitted in that block.

Construction between Gale and the bridge north of the square is proceeding as planned. Access to the square from the north has been cut off through Friday, June 20, while the bridge approach is poured. That access will be available as soon as the concrete cures.

Use the alternate detour past Arctic Springs to get downtown.

"One hundred copies, please."

Not everything in life is that easy. But using the self-service copy machine at The Republican really is easy. And at 7¢ a copy for a letter sized sheet (plus tax) you'll agree there is nothing punishing about the price, either.
